

NETWORK AND ALLIANCE OF TRANSPLANT COORDINATORS

CALL FOR NOMINATION

Dear Doctor/Hospital Administrator,

Subject: Swamy Narayan Best Transplant Coordinator Award 2022 – Call for Nomination

We are happy to announce the 15th National Annual Transplant Coordinators' Conference of NATCO (Network and Alliance of Transplant Coordinators) on October 15 -16, 2022 at Nagpur in partnership with the Indian Society for Organ Transplantation (ISOT).

We are sure you will concur that Transplant Coordinators play a vital role in the entire process of organ donation. Every deceased donor organ transplant is, in fact a manifestation of human faith and their passionate work. To keep this human resource motivated and to strengthen the Deceased Organ Donation Program, NATCO presents the 'Swamy Narayan Best Transplant Coordinator Award' every year during the conference.

The Award was instituted in the year 2010 in the memory of Late Swamy Narayan (young 20-year-old son of the Country Director of MOHAN Foundation, Ms Lalitha Raghuram) whose organs saved the lives of many recipients post the brave decision taken by his parents. Many transplant coordinators from across the country have received the award over the years (<https://natco.org.in/awards.html>) and carries a cash prize of Rs. 5,000 and a plaque.

We request you to nominate the Transplant Coordinator from your Hospital/ Institution for this award. Last date for submitting your nomination is September 30, 2022.

The best 5 nominations will be shortlisted, and the candidates will be given the opportunity to present their work at the conference for 3 minutes. The acceptance does not imply any financial assistance. All nominees must be members of NATCO and should have registered for the conference. This award will be presented only to those who attend the conference.
